South Bruce Community & Business Assoc – September 25th Public Meeting

A public meeting to officially begin the SBCBA was held at the Formosa Hall on September 25th at 7:30PM.

Les Nichols opened the meeting with a welcome to all present, introduced the committee members and discussed the work that has been completed to date.

The goals of the group were discussed including the development of a business directory, website, possible Christmas party, training opportunities, health & safety seminars and listing of the commercial property available within South Bruce.

Jim Gowland presented the draft copy of the bylaws and this was followed by a question and answer period.

Jim Gowland made the motion: “That the presented bylaws (including amendments and changes) at this general meeting held on September 25th 2012 be accepted as the new working bylaws of the newly formed South Bruce Community and Business Association.”

This motion was passed by a show of hands by those present at the meeting.

Steve Tiffin began the nominations for the executive positions, but it was decided to nominate at large the organizational committee members if they would stand for these positions. Jean Cullition, Charles James and Shirley Kuntz chose to step down and the remaining members agreed to stay on. Dale Lougheed, Adam Ireland and Steve Tiffin agreed to join the executive committee. The committee will meet after the public meeting to nominate for the positions.

A motion was made by Ken Scott to operate the association using the Bank of Montreal. This was seconded by Dale Caskanette and passed by a show of hands by those present.

General discussions followed regarding our municipality and upcoming issues – the Nuclear Depository, economic development, how to bring new businesses in, working with council and the possible loss of the Teeswater Horticulture Society.

The public meeting was then adjourned by Les Nichols and the executive committee members met to nominate for positions.

Mission Statement: The SBCBA is a group of community minded citizens dedicated to promotion and economic development within the Municipality of South Bruce.
